

Shuttle Tijuana/San Diego

From Tijuana Airport to San Diego

After leaving baggage claim, please go to the Volaris information module or to the Ground Transportation Terminal to board the Shuttle, which will take you to Tijuana- San Diego border, where you must descend, with your luggage, and go through Customs.

Once you passed the US migration point, if you will not enter beyond the 25 miles of the border in US territory (I94 format), you must take your bags and go to Plaza Mayor where the unit will be at the schedules mentioned below, and the Shuttle will be located behind the Bambino restaurant. If you have to apply for the permit to entry to the United States, after finishing the immigration process, please go to the same location.

If when you finished the immigration process and do not find the Shuttle due to the delay of Customs, you must wait for the next service available.

Terms and conditions

This service is offered by California Fun Rides LLC. Tickets are not transferable or refundable. If your flight changes call the operator at least 2 hours before the departure of your flight. For an invoice of the service please request it to the supplier.

The procedures conducted at immigration regarding customers at the Tijuana's B.C./ Otay Mesa USA crossing point are personal and are made independently from the programmed schedules of this service. The time it may take a customer to cross and enter may vary according to the waiting time for the crosswalk or the car crossing. Because of this, Volaris and California Fun Rides cannot take responsibility in the case of a delay caused by the pedestrian entrance or the car crossing. In the same way, Volaris or California Fun Rides will not take responsibility in the case of any delays in the solicitude of permission to enter the USA (Permission 194). If the customers who acquire this service are affected by a delayed entrance, and do not make it on time to the meeting point with the unit on the USA side, the customer will have to wait for the next available service according to the previously established schedules at www.volaris.com, and release Volaris and California Fun Rides from any responsibility that may arise from any complaints.
